From the Pastor's Desk

I love to watch it snow. I like to watch the rain too, but watching snow can take my attention for a long time. Sometimes the flakes are big and sometimes they are small. Sometimes they fall softly down, and sometimes they blow sideways. I find it very relaxing to watch the snow. (Of course, I am not responsible for cleaning the snow off the driveway!)

As I was watching large flakes of snow falling gently the other day, and praising God for how beautiful they are, a thought came to mind: Water in its liquid form is water. Water in its gas form is water vapor. Water in its solid form is ice. Although ice does fall from the sky sometimes as hail, in the winter, we get snow. How does the water turn into snow as it's falling, instead of ice?

According to the NOAA website, "A snowflake begins to form when an extremely cold water droplet freezes onto a pollen or dust particle in the sky. This creates an ice crystal. As the ice crystal falls to the ground, water vapor freezes onto the primary crystal, building new crystals – the six arms of the snowflake."

Isn't that incredible?! God didn't just say, "When I need to water the earth, I'll send liquid water." God was clever and imaginative and decided to not only make rain and hail: God decided to make snow. Those snowflakes can be different sizes and have different moisture content. And they are all different! NOAA again: "Individual snowflakes all follow slightly different paths from the sky to the ground —and thus encounter slightly different atmospheric conditions along the way. Therefore, they all tend to look unique."

Of all of the things that God created, the intricacies just go on and on. No wonder King David wrote in Psalm 90, "The heavens declare the glories of God!" They certainly do! All of nature does!!

Jesus said, if God cares so much for the lilies of the field and the birds of the air, how much more does he care for you! I would add, if God cares so much that he made the atmosphere create different forms of precipitation, as well as the situation that each snowflake would be different, how much more does he care for you!

This winter, as the cold lingers and you long for spring, be on the lookout for all of the ways that God's imagination makes things beautiful, the snow – and everything else!

I'll see you in church, where we praise God's creativity!

Love, Pastor Brenda

Dear Family of Faith:

I wanted to let you know that I have accepted Christina Bergh's resignation effective December 22, 2022. Christina, our bookkeeper, had planned on resigning by the end of the year, but circumstances moved the date earlier.. Please pray for Christina as she makes this transition away from River of Life to her employment at Mercy Hospital in Janesville.

The Staff Pastor Parish Relations Committee had recently hired Kelly Lutzow as our church secretary. Kelly has a 1-year certificate in accounting from Blackhawk Tech, and several years of experience as a bookkeeper. From the very beginning of Kelly's employment, SPPRC and I were considering bringing Kelly into both positions. Kelly is bright, learns quickly and works quickly. She has now been offered the position of doing both jobs, and she has accepted. We are confident that Kelly will do this combined position well. We will also be looking for volunteers to do some office tasks, like assembling mailings several times a year.

Kelly's new title will be Office Manager, as she will be responsible for everything in the office. She formally began in this new role December 27th. Kelly's email address is kelly.lutzow@rolumcwi.com. Note there is a period between her first and last names. Kelly will be full-time, spending 40 hours a week in the office, but the office will continue to be open 10am-3pm Monday-Thursday. Kelly's remaining hours will be time that can be uninterrupted so she will be able to get all of this work done. And please also remember - on Sunday mornings, Kelly is worshiping and fellowshiping. Please do not ask her "work" questions during this time. Call the office or send her an email.

I thank you in advance for the grace that I know you will extend to Kelly as she learns a new job while needing to close out one year and open another. Of course, feel free to reach out to her with any questions you have.

Blessings to you in this New Year!

Love, Pastor Brenda

MISSIONS

Loose Coins

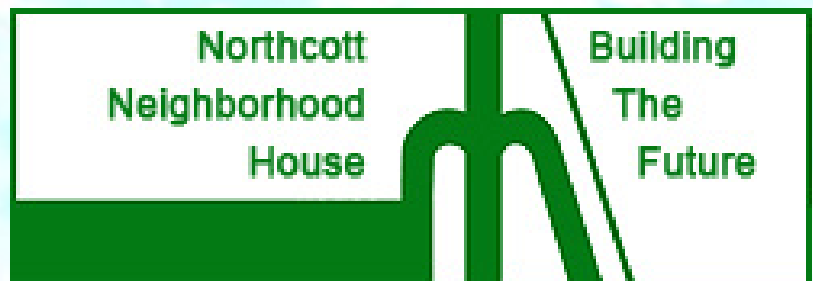

Loose Coins for January will go to Northcott Neighborhood House in Milwaukee. This multi-program community center was started in 1961 by the Woman's Society of Christian Service (now United Women of Faith), together with the Wisconsin Conference and the General Board of Global Ministries. Northcott's beginnings were a lot like the startup of Caritas in Beloit, providing food, clothing, and a family support system out of an older house in the city.

Today Northcott Neighborhood House occupies several modern buildings and serves 10,000 community residents a year. They provide job skills, employment opportunities, and basic food and clothing necessities, in addition to recreational facilities and community meeting space. They also offer educational opportunities for all ages, with GED, literacy, Head Start, and after-school programs held at locations around the city.

Northcott Neighborhood House has really grown since that first food and clothing bank started by WSCS. It's still supported by UWF and the Wisconsin Conference, among many other community funding partners. It serves one of the most segregated cities in the nation with community-building and family support.

Please give to this important ministry right in our own state. Drop your loose coins in the offering. Or, put a couple bills or a check in an envelope marked for Northcott. Thank you!

Decorating for Advent 2022—Clinton Campus

It was an eventful day getting the two trees decorated along with putting up the rest of the ornaments and manger scene in time for Advent Season. Carol Scheets and Jeanette are shown working on the new tree along with our photographer Vicki Boschma. Once we got the Sanctuary decorated, we came out and helped decorate the tree with Carol, Jeanette and Vicki. We are also missing a picture of Dennis' brother, Darrell. Darrell, Dennis and Vicki got a head start on getting the tree set up and started decorating it. A great time had by all.

UWF Lesson for January 2023

On Our Journeys to and with Christ

Introduction

Welcome back as we celebrate a new year in each other's company. As we start the year, we want to create a space to acknowledge that our present and future is a result of a journey, a sum of our experiences, of the people we've met, the legacy our ancestors are living through us, and that we are laying the foundation for generations to come.

Let's form pairs to take a moment to think of someone who has been life-giving in our faith journeys. Who were they and how did they impact our faith or journeys?

Allow three minutes to share and then cue the pairs to change roles.

Program Summary

In this program, we will continue looking at our unique gifts and journeys as well as see how these have been enriched by the support of other people.

Perhaps we start our story from the day or place we were born, the days we turned to Jesus, the moment we moved to another city, or perhaps it starts with our parents or grandparents or earlier ancestors.

Most of us have family stories of migration, which are also stories of people seeking connection, love, safety, and prosperity.

Regardless of when we start our journeys or our stories, it is important to acknowledge that all those moments and where we come from have made us who we are today and that through good or difficult moments God has been there with us.

All of us have a story worth sharing.

Reflection of 2022

Covid-19 is still daunting us to this day. Many of us have made up our minds that we are going to dawn masks when needed and go out and about to get what we have to do and be done. I still wear mine to this date when I go to the big box stores and when I go into the gas stations or any other smaller stores, post office when I have errands to do. We, as a church body, have grown to put our faith forward and do what needs to be done for the church. Live streaming is here to stay I do believe deep down in my heart. Several, if not most of the churches locally, are still offering live streaming as well as services done by radio sitting in your cars. We offer on-line contributions to be done if you are not able to be in church to give your offerings. Yes, we do offer drop through the mail slot and USPS that you can get your offerings to the church as well. With all of this being said, I do want to Thank each and everyone of you for what you have accomplished in maintaining your pledges in 2022. Our church is so generous and loving. In this year alone, we have helped several people through God's fund. We were able to cloth them, help them keep their job by helping them purchase a pair of steel toe work boots. Through your generosity, we showered gifts to Family Promise to help those in need. We also purchased laundry products and baskets to help the VETS help themselves to learn the steps into maintaining clean clothes. We helped young teens to survive through the 16:49 program; gave a tremendous amount of donation to help folks get back on their feet through a hurricane that wiped them out. Our church home offers a home to two AA groups. One AA group has one meeting and the other AA group offers two meetings in one night. The list goes on and on through our missional help and needs. You maintained your pledge throughout the year. Even when we had to shut down for a month due to high Covid -19 numbers, each and every one of you kept on giving your offerings so the work could still be accomplished every week. When the need arises, this congregation is ready to help. Help both locally and beyond our own backyards.

We have members who gives of themselves. Their own talents. Each quarter and for some special activity of the whole church, there is a person who goes out of their way to be creative of the theme that the special event is about. Then we have our folks who have made prayer shawls. They are beautiful prayer shawls. If you would like to have one or know of someone who would love to have one, please contact the office. These shawls are beautiful and full of love.

We do need to remember that being missional is wonderful. We need to remember that our church needs to have funds as well to keep the doors open so we can maintain being a invitational and loving church to continue in doing the work that needs to be done. We have lost pillars of our church and their legacies go on living within the church. We need to figure out how we are going to make up for those losses. When we don't increase our giving, it effects us all. If you aren't changing, we aren't changing in what we are offering to our members. To our communities. We have two beautiful campuses and we have a lot to offer to our communities. Let us go forth in 2023 to make our church stronger yet.

Again, Thank You for all you do for your church!
