You can watch worship online in two ways:

- * On our church website
- * Through Facebook

The benefit of a "Facebook Premiere" (similar to a Facebook Live) is that we can comment in real time. So, as we watch at the same time, we can interact with the video together. This gives at least a little more sense of the community of our church family as we see each other's comments.

From the Pastor

Last year we celebrated Ash Wednesday, began Lent, and then two and a half weeks later we canceled in person worship because of Covid-19. I hoped we were going to shelter in place for a few weeks and we would be back in the sanctuary by Palm Sunday. Instead, eleven months later, we are still not back in person in the sanctuary. It kind-of feels like we are still in that season of Lent from last year and we are beginning Lent for this year. With this in mind, how do we make Lent meaningful this year? How does it not become depressing?

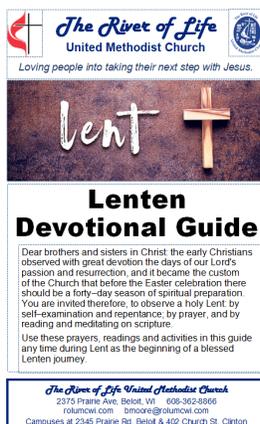

If you are like many people, this year has been far from “normal”. Your life has been turned upside-down by Covid. You sacrificed a lot to keep yourself and others safe. I don’t think you need to give up anything this year for Lent. You don’t need to be reminded of your mortality. If you are like many people, you have already given up enough. You need some healing and some life during this time.

This year it might be helpful this Lent to add an activity each week, or even each day, to help you connect to God. Do an activity each week/day from the Lenten Devotional Guide you will receive on Ash Wednesday. Commit to reading one of the Gospels over these next forty days. Join one of the three Bible or book studies that we are offering. Memorize all of the scripture memory verses we have had since last July. Commit to writing an encouraging card or two or three a day to members of our church family.

Ash Wednesday reminds us that we are dust, and to dust we will return. God takes our dust, redeems and perfects us. Because of the life, death and resurrection of Jesus, you have been transformed from dust into a precious child of God! Lent is a time to claim this, and reconnect to the One who is the giver of life!

I wish you a blessed Lent. May you connect with God in a new way. May you see that Covid will come to an end. May you know that this year-long Lent will come to an end. May we come out of the other side of it recognizing more than ever our new life in Christ Jesus.

Stay strong in faith, until we can meet in person together, Love, Pastor Brenda

An 8-page Lenten Devotional Guide will be given away at the Ash Wednesday Drive Through Prayer time at the Beloit Campus (12:00pm) and the Clinton Campus (2:00pm.) The Lenten Devotional Guide includes scripture reading and prayer techniques as well as some fun and meaningful activities.

If you are not able to attend, they will be available in the totes at each campus.

There are three opportunities for small group study during Lent:

LENTEN

STUDY GROUP

Simon Peter: Flawed But Faithful Disciple

by Adam Hamilton will be the book study for the Wednesday Morning Bible Study Group, 10:30am via Zoom. The first session will be February 24th. Contact the office or Pastor Brenda if you would like to join this Bible/book study.

Forgiveness: A Lenten Study

by Marjorie Thompson will be the book study for the Wednesday Evening Bible Study Group, 6:30pm via Zoom. The first session will be February 24th. Contact the office or Pastor Brenda if you would like to join this Bible/book study.

Reflections Bible Study

is using videos from The Bible Project. This group meets Saturdays at 7:30am. Participants can join at any time. Contact the church office or Bob Parssinen.

Everyone is welcome to join in any of these three studies.

Our worship and sermon series during Lent will center on the healing of Jesus. We will look at some favorite healing passages as well as some that may surprise you. How can these passages give us the courage to live into Jesus' healing for our lives now? Join us online as we discover Jesus' Healing.

Reopening Update:

The Reopening Team met in January to discuss when it will be appropriate to begin worshiping in person again. We can see the light at the end of the tunnel: we just don't know how long the tunnel is. We will be meeting again in March and hope to be able to begin putting together a time-line. We need to be patient a little longer to keep our church family safe. We all are longing to return. Keep praying!

Drive In Worship

We have heard from many people that they have found Drive In Worship to be very meaningful during this time of not worshiping in the sanctuary. We were hoping to have several through the winter, but the tremendous amount of snow and ice have gotten in the way. We are hoping at the very least we will be able to Drive In on Palm Sunday and Easter. Watch for updates as spring approaches.

Pastoral Care

Pastor Care Visits will resume in late March. Pastor Brenda qualified under category 1a of the Covid vaccine distribution as a Spiritual Care Provider. She has received her first vaccine and will begin visiting people by mid to late March. If you or someone you love have received both vaccine doses and would like a home or facility visit, please let the office know so it can be scheduled.

Mission News

February Loose Coins -- Bags of Hope

The Mission Committee met recently and set the Loose Coin designations for 2021.

February Loose Coin offerings will go to Bags of Hope. This is the ministry started by Clinton members Vicki and Dennis Boschma to supply bags with toiletries and other personal items to about a dozen area shelters and agencies, such as the Sparrow's Nest shelter, Family Promise (serving homeless families), Rock Valley Community Program (serving veterans), Domestic Violence Center and the GIFTS Shelter.

Since Vicki and Dennis had to give up the project, the Mission Committee has been searching for a workable way to keep it going. We are happy to announce that it will continue, managed by Tom Alverson, with the committee providing support. Prior to Covid, we had distributed over 1,285 personal gift bags.

To contribute to the Loose Coin offering, you may put cash or a check made out to the church (with "Loose Coins" on the memo line) in an envelope and slip it in the front-door slot at the church office, or mail it, or bring it to a drive-in service when they resume. To have it included in your church giving record, write your name and offering-envelope number on the envelope.

Sewers Needed Blankets of Warmth

Sewers -- that is, people who know how to sew -- are needed to help with the growing Blankets of Warmth project.

Some of our Clinton members head up this mission, sewing and delivering blankets to many of the same agencies that Bags of Hope serves. The needs are great right now, and they've been asked to supply more. Prior to Covid, we had distributed 125 Blankets of Warmth.

The blankets are made by sewing two pieces of fleece together inside out with an opening, and then turning them right side out and sewing around all the edges. Just a simple sewing machine stitch is used. If you can help or would like more information, call Margaret Hansen (608-774-1802) in Clinton or Diane Gemigniani (608-290-5274) or Ellen Butchart (608-365-9625) in Beloit.

Dates from the Prayer Calendar

Last month we listed the birthday of a UM missionary with the idea of sending this person a birthday card.

The missionary suggested was Claudia Genung. It turns out that Claudia is the lead pastor for the Kobe (Japan) Union Church. If the size of a church is determined by the size of its pipe organ, then this is a large church. Claudia has been a missionary to Japan for 30 years. Her husband is also a pastor and they have two grown sons. Not only does Claudia do all the things pastors do, she also helps support a care ministry at the Rev. Toyohiko Kagawa Center. Toyohiko Kagawa was a very famous evangelist in Japan. If you google him, you will be astounded at the extent of his work. Pastor Claudia sends her greetings to the River of Life UMW and thanks us for our prayers.

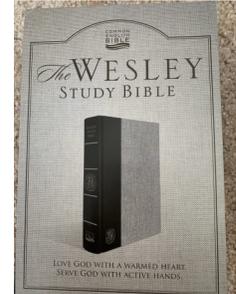

The idea of sending a card to a missionary was to add to their happiness, but I received a greater blessing by learning the extent of this missionary work in Kobe, Japan.

Here is a suggested missionary for February.

Features

- Weights and measures
- Study notes
- Concordance
- Index
- Maps by National Geographic
- Wesleyan Core Terms
- Holiness of Heart and Life Articles
- Extended references to works by John Wesley

The CEB is a new translation with easy readability for readers of all ages. A team of over 120 scholars from over 24 faith traditions worked on this translation. Five different denominational publishers are involved with Abingdon Press as the sales distribution partner.

I have several study Bibles, but this is definitely my new favorite. It is so easy to read and understand in today's world. The features and study material are excellent. The typeface and size are easy on the eyes, however the pages are quite thin so must be turned with care. If you are looking for a new Bible, this might just be the one for you.—Carol Connors

Apportionment Giving Where Does All That Money Go?

A few years back when I became interested and heard the call from the Holy Ghost to become involved deeper in the church as a Lay Speaker, in one of the seminars that I had signed up for, Dan Dick, Director of Connectional Ministries, put together “The Apportionment Exploration Guide”, 2015, for the Wisconsin Annual Conference. In the guide he has an article that I have referenced to for our monthly newsletter. He writes:

Too many people misunderstand where apportionment money goes. The vast majority of apportioned funds stay within the annual conference where the local church is located. For all those who feel that the conference could do a better job with our mission giving if it was spent locally, well, good news! They do. Conference apportionments pay the salaries of the men and women who organize, develop and promote a plan for living our mission and performing our ministry. The Conference offers to the local church and each community ministries, programs and projects that individual congregations cannot manage alone. Conference camps and retreat programs, campus ministries, mission projects, new congregational development, social justice opportunities, celebration events, archive and history preservation, and a host of other services are paid by all our local churches to benefit everyone. Health and Welfare ministries offer healing, counseling, safety, training & education, assisted living, disaster relief, food and clothing receive critically import support. When we don't give, they suffer, and the people they serve suffer most.

In Wisconsin, through our apportionment giving, fifteen health and welfare ministries are funded. There are two camps and dozens of camp programs. Nine campus ministries are assisted. All are life-changing. There are support ministries that fight domestic violence, racism, sexism, economic injustice, alcoholism, gambling, drug abuse and educational inequality and bullying are also funded. Laity and clergy leadership are trained for ministry, as well as church planners, social workers, cross cultural and multicultural leaders, and chaplains. There are support efforts to combat hunger, homelessness, mental illness, and violence. Our Wisconsin Conference champions support efforts to defend the elderly, the disabled and challenged, the marginalized, and oppressed. We educate and advocate for immigration justice, and the elimination of institutional racism and sexism, and community organizing. Though our apportionment giving, the state of Wisconsin is transformed in meaningful and positive ways!

Each of the ministries the Wisconsin Conference provides and supports translates to pennies a day per member. Over eight hundred ministries are supported locally, conference-wide, nation-wide, and globally through United Methodist giving. The costs per member per week to fully fund our apportionments is about equal to a cup of coffee at the local coffee shop, or a value meal at the local fast food restaurant, each of us can support more than eight hundred expressions of Christian love, mercy, kindness, justice and compassion. This is where our money goes. WOW! So many lives are touched through our apportionment giving.

Thanks Be To God,
Thomas C. Alverson
Stewardship Chairperson
